Lesson Attendance Guidelines and Cancellation Policy:

If canceling a lesson for any reason, please leave a message for Cheyenne Marie via email at iamcheyannemarie@gmail.com or cell phone at 813-404-8109.

Please be considerate and give as much notice as possible if you are unable to attend a lesson. You will be charged for your lesson if you do not cancel 24 hours in advance.

Only one make-up lesson will be allowed each month. A $10.00 rescheduling fee will apply.

As a performer, occasions may arise which will require that my schedule be altered. The cooperation and support of both the student and the parent are respectfully requested in these matters.

Practice:

“Talent is overrated.” It is not enough to rely on our gifts. We must practice daily as we would with anything else. According to the 10,000 rule, it takes about 10,000 hours for someone to become a “professional”. With that in mind, I expect a lot from my students. I expect drive, passion, and hard-work. Students will be given a practice log at the first lesson of each month to log their hours of practicing. This helps to hold the students accountable while giving the parent/guardian(s) a physical log of the work being done.

Goals:

Students will also be given a goal sheet at the end of each lesson. They are to bring it to their next lesson to see if they accomplished their goals for the week. We will discuss numerous methods of performance practice so this exercise is simple yet essential. An example of three goals would be:

1. To practice an hour each day
2. To warm-up on “eee” or [i] on staccato major triads through my range.
3. To listen to the soundtrack of Hamilton, the Broadway musical.

Payment:

All lessons must be prepaid in advance. I accept Cash, Checks (made out to Cheyenne Osoria), Venmo (@CheyenneMarieMusic), CashApp ($CheyenneMarieMusic) and PayPal (cheyenne.osoria@gmail.com).

Please always write Lessons in the Memo for tax purposes. Rates are as follow:
